Spring 2021

A Message from the Township Committee

On January 14, 2021, Governor Murphy announced an expansion of vaccination eligibility to seniors over the age of 65 and anyone between the ages of 16 and 64 with certain preexisting medical conditions.

All residents eligible to receive the COVID-19 vaccine are strongly encouraged to pre-register on the NJ State website <https://covidvaccine.nj.gov> or call 855-568-0545. Widespread vaccination is an important step toward protecting public health and we encourage those in the community who are eligible for a vaccination to do so when possible. We have received word that Penn Medicine Princeton Health in Plainsboro will be one of 200 vaccine distribution satellite sites in the state. As of this writing, vaccine is in short supply and we encourage the community to continue to practice CDC COVID-19 safety measures and remain patient to be notified by email about a vaccination appointment.

If you are pursuing a vaccination appointment through an alternate means, it is still recommended to sign up through the state website. As vaccines become available, opportunities to make an appointment to receive the vaccine should become easier to get.

We all recognize the current vaccine supply is insufficient and does not meet the local and national needs, but we remain hopeful that this will change and vaccine supplies will increase.

Please be assured that the Mayor and Township Committee will continue to work with state, county and hospital officials in an effort to ensure the distribution of COVID-19 vaccinations to our residents. For the latest information on COVID-19 from the township, visit <https://www.plainsboronj.com/CivicAlerts.aspx?AID=400> Stay safe.

Did You Know?

Did you know that since the beginning of the pandemic Plainsboro police officers have delivered more than 2,400 meals to township residents in need? Last March, the Plainsboro Police Department partnered with the Department of Recreation and Community Services to distribute meals to residents who were sheltering in place due to the pandemic. Since the beginning of the pandemic, the number of food pantry recipients has been on the rise. For more information about the food pantry or to donate, contact Erum Ladak at eladak@plainsboronj.com or call 609-799-0909, x1711.

Did you know that the Plainsboro Division of Fire Prevention updated its inspection software in 2021? The new software is web based, which has increased inspection productivity in the field and administrative efficiency in the office. Next time you see one of our fire inspectors in the field ask them about the new software and/or for information on how to keep your family safe from fire.

Did you know that Plainsboro added a second electric vehicle (EV) to its fleet? As part of the Township's ongoing commitment to the environment, the township recently purchased a 2021 Nissan LEAF through state contract. The EV will be assigned to the Code Enforcement Department for use by inspection staff. The EV will be charged at the municipal charging stations located behind the Recreation and Cultural Center. These stations are also available for public use.

New Teacher Profile: Makenzie Scholer

This spring, Plainsboro Township Recreation welcomes a new special needs dance teacher: Makenzie Scholer. Makenzie is a recent graduate of West Chester University in Pennsylvania and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise Science with minors in both Dance Performance and Psychology. While attending West Chester University, she was involved in the University Dance Company.

Makenzie grew up dancing, beginning at the young age of two. Her passion for dance began the minute she started dancing and has not stopped. She has carried this passion with her throughout her life and has studied in the styles of Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Lyrical, Modern, and Pointe. Through high school Makenzie taught classes at her home studio Triangle Dance Center in Hillsborough, New Jersey. Looking to the future,

Makenzie plans to attend graduate school to study Applied Behavior Analysis. She hopes that she can continue to combine her passions of movement therapy and dance to aid students in learning.

Makenzie will be teaching Rhythm Works Integrative Dance which is a ground-breaking rhythm and dance class for kids ages 3 – 14. This class is perfect for recreational beginners and is an ideal environment for students with physical challenges, autism, Down syndrome, sensory processing disorder and other individual learning differences.

“The program uses evidence-based therapeutic practices to achieve developmental goals,” stated Township Committeeman Nuran Nabi. “To the students, it’s a fun and exciting activity that provides participation and socialization opportunities.” Each registered student is encouraged to bring an assistive buddy at no extra charge. This buddy could be a parent, therapist, sibling or friend. Classes will begin in early April.

Bulk Waste Events at the Recycling/Conservation Center

The Conservation Center, located off Grovers Mill Road, provides the opportunity for Township residents to recycle their yard waste, automotive batteries, rechargeable batteries, tires with no rims, motor oil, antifreeze and engine oil filters on a weekly basis.

The Conservation Center is open from April 1st through December 15th Mondays and Thursdays, 5:30 pm – 7:30 pm and Saturdays from 10:00 am – 5:00 pm.

Annually, the Township hosts four Bulk Waste Days at the Conservation Center. In 2021, the dates are April 3, June 12, August 14 and November 6. During these dates residents can dispose of items normally not collected by their private contractor (e.g. furniture, appliances, bicycles, etc). Items not accepted are those considered household hazardous waste (HHW) and waste generated from home construction projects. Residents can dispose of their HHW at Middlesex County HHW events; dates are available on the municipal website. Residents requiring the use of a commercial vehicle must notify the Department of Public Works at least 24 hours in advance.

Electronic items are also accepted. Accepted items include CPUs, monitors, keyboards, scanners, modems, printers, cables, television, VCRs and DVD players.

“Bulk Waste days are extremely popular in Plainsboro. The Township Committee encourages all residents to utilize this available resource,” states Township Committee member David Bander. Additional information regarding the Conservation Center and Bulk Waste days can be obtained by contacting the Department of Public Works, 799-0099 or by visiting Plainsboro’s website, www.plainsboronj.com.

Springtime Fire Safety Tips

Help keep your family members and first responders safe this spring by following these fire safety tips.

- Reduce clutter in your home.
By reducing clutter you reduce the fire load in your home, make it easier for first responders to enter your home in an emergency and increase the efficacy of the exits in your home.
- Clean your clothes dryer vent this spring.
Typically most clothes dryer manufacturers recommend cleaning the dryer vent at least once per year. By cleaning your dryer vent, you reduce the fire hazard associated with the buildup of dryer lint. Dryer lint is a highly combustible material. Excessive dryer lint in a clothes dryer vent poses a fire risk by causing the clothes dryer to overheat which could potentially ignite the lint. Your local hardware store has the tools necessary to clean the vent or contact your handyman for assistance.

- Develop and practice your fire evacuation plan.
Make a plan by drawing a map of your home that includes all doors and windows. Discuss the plan with everyone in your home and have a fire drill to practice escaping your house in case of a fire emergency.

“Also, remember to test your smoke alarms and carbon monoxide alarms regularly”, reminded Township Committeeman Ed Yates. “Change the batteries in both alarms at least twice each year.”

Kids to Parks Day

In light of the effects the pandemic has had on this past year, outside play and adventure experiences have become even more important to kids of all ages.

This year marks the 11th anniversary of Kids to Parks Day, an annual day of outdoor exploration at local, state, and national parks and public lands across the country. Organized by National Park Trust, a non-profit dedicated to preserving parks, the mission of Kids to Parks Day is to foster future outdoor enthusiasts and help with developing the next generation of park stewards by engaging kids in memorable outdoor experiences. While discovering and exploring our parks, kids learn about park stewardship, outdoor recreation, STEM and the history of our country and its amazing national treasures – because kids need parks and parks need kids!

Always hosted the third Saturday of May, Kids to Parks Day encourages children and their families to get outside and create their own adventure at thousands of local park events and programs.

This year Plainsboro's Kids to Parks Day is designed to connect kids to nature experiences found in the Plainsboro Preserve. On Saturday, May 15th, we are encouraging families to come out to the Preserve and explore the gardens and trails. Buddy Bison is the official Kids to Parks Day mascot and all participants will hunt for pictures of “Buddy Bison” throughout the preserve in order to win a prize.

Wicoff House Museum 2021 Goals: Preserving Plainsboro's History and Engaging Local Youth

The Wicoff House Museum collection includes a diverse range of objects, documents and photographs that tell the story of Plainsboro's development from a small farming community to a modern hub of research and innovation. Some of the topical collections are Native Americans in the Plainsboro area, Plainsboro's Early Families and Small Businesses and Organizations in Plainsboro. Even more specific collections include Walker-Gordon and Elsie the Cow, Wicoff Family and Plainsboro Schools. Some of the museum's most interesting objects include Lavinia Wicoff's 1904 satin wedding dress and shoes, Elsie the Cow's rubber shoes and the Plainsboro sign from the old local train station.

Kate Nolan, Museum Specialist, has been working to organize, catalog and digitize the entire museum collection so that we can create new rotating exhibits inside the museum and on our website. If you have any objects with significance to Plainsboro's history and would like to donate them to the museum, please e-mail museum@plainsboronj.com and let us know about the object. Also planned is to build on a new collection of Plainsboro's Immigrant Stories, and welcome donations of significant objects from minority community members who have helped build Plainsboro's diverse cultural community over the past several decades.

To continue to engage local youth and other community members during this COVID-19 pandemic and the shift to virtual audiences, four new programs will be launched this year which are either completely virtual or partially virtual with social distanced aspects.

Beginning in February, a virtual Junior Historians Club program will begin with participants working to solve a museum mystery through a program booklet that they can complete at home at their own pace. Each month, JHC members will receive a packet of materials and secret codes to access videos on the museum website. Each month's activities will not only help them to solve the museum mystery, but teach them about the importance of historic preservation. They will learn about conducting oral history interviews, reading historic maps and identifying architectural elements.

The other three programs involve driving or walking around Plainsboro or Middlesex County, and offer families the opportunity to learn the area's history together. One is a tour of historic sites throughout Plainsboro which can be accessed on foot or bike or by car. The final two programs are collaborative projects with other history museums throughout the county and the surrounding area. One is the Central Jersey Historic Sites Tour, which includes a passport for participants to complete for a reward. We are currently developing the last program, which will be a virtual scavenger hunt of the Wicoff House Museum and other nearby history museums. Information about all of these programs can be found on our website at <https://www.plainsboronj.com/792/Historic-Wicoff-House-Museum>
